Services

Tax and Service Charge

All food and beverage prices are subject to 8% Maine meal tax and an 18% service charge.

The service charge helps cover the costs of doing business: office staff, utilities, office supplies, day to day operations, etc. So while a catering contract may show a break down of the event elements and their costs, the service charge helps cover the cost of the hours needed to prep and plan the event.

Prices quoted herein may be subject to change given market fluctuations and reasonable substitutions of equal value may be made based on availability of items.

Gratuity

We do not charge gratuity, it is the sole discretion of the client. Tips are not requested or expected but gladly accepted.

Meals served buffet style

Buffet Serve - casual serve off the cook trailer or buffet line with chafers. The meal is self-served (buffet style) and Ned's BBQ provides bamboo plates, plastic-ware, napkins, or we can assist in securing all rental items needed and rental fees apply.

Note if rental items are used additional cleanup fees will apply see page 10.
